MAKE BID FOR FOOTBALL TITLE

Calumet High Will Have Strong Team This Season

Next Monday, when the school sessions are resumed for the fall term, Captain Harold Soddy of the Calumet high school football team will issue a call for the first practice of candidates for the gridiron game. The prospects for the Calumet team are exceedingly bright this year and diligent work will be undertaken at once.

Among the veterans of last year's first team, who are available for this year's team are Captain Soddy, Alvin James, Edgar James, Dwight Lantz, Allan Renwick, Polsey, Morrison and McDuff. All of these players have proved their merit in hard fought contests and there is little question that form a foundation on which a much stronger team can be built than has represented the Calumet high school for several years. Last year's reserve team will provide a wealth of material from which vacancies may be filled, in fact it is anticipated the second team men may crowd the veterans for places this year.

Last year's second team went through the season without being scored upon, having made an exceptional record. While other teams in the county lost many of their stalwarts, the Calumet losses by graduation were slight and with the known strength of the second team, makes Calumet's football prospects seem exceptionally bright.

Final preparations have been made for the resumption of work in the local schools this year and a full enrollment is expected next Monday, the opening day. Teachers have already begun to arrive in Calumet from their vacations in other parts of the country, and later in the week the influx will become more noticeable.

THREE HELD ON GRAVE CHARGES

Well Known Local Man Is Victim of Stabbing Affray

Nick Hill, Halmur Junttila and Andrew Leino were arrested this morning and arraigned before Justice C. O. Jackola on the charge of assault with intent to do great bodily harm, less than the crime of murder. Each entered a plea of not guilty and demanded an examination, which was set for tomorrow morning before Justice Jackola. Bonds of $1,000 were demanded and being unable to procure them, the three are being held in the Red Jacket jail. The charges lodged against the men are based on an alleged stabbing affray in Red Jacket last evening, in which Walter C. Rost was painfully injured.

There are several stories of the affair and most of them differ in detail. It is claimed a party of Red Jacket youths had an altercation with the defendants and one of the youths was struck in the face. A man named Cullis went to the assistance of the boys, it is said, and was the object of an attack. A short time later, Rost, who had not been interested in the original melee, became involved and was slashed in the forearm and also along the leg. Neither wound is dangerous. He is being treated in the C. & H. hospital.

ROAD REPAIRS BEING PUSHED

Calumet Township Forces Make Many Improvements

Road repairs being made by Calumet township under the direction of Overseer of Highways James E. Burdill this year will prove the means of opening up a large acreage of farming country, which heretofore could be reached only by rough country roads, over which no heavy machinery could be taken.

The most important improvements this year have been made to the roads just west of Calumet, the Lake Shore road, and a loop running from the Waterworks road to the farming district directly south, then along the lake shore to the pumping station. This road opens up a splendid farming district and also provides access to Calumet from the little location of Fishermen just south of the pumping station. Among other things the road opens up a new route to the Lake Shore school. These improvements have also been completed and the roads referred to are in splendid condition.

Work will be started shortly on the Albion-Centennial road, which has been in need of repairs for some time. It is expected this road also will be completed this year.

Minor repairs were made on the Lake Linden road this season, including the filling in of all low spots and resurfacing the highway in Calumet township.

BOARD TO MEET TUESDAY.

The regular September meeting of the Calumet township board will be held Tuesday afternoon in the offices of the township clerk. Little important business is expected to come up for consideration.

The Red Jacket council also will hold its regular meeting on Tuesday evening for the transaction of routine business.

Division No. 2, A. O. H. will hold regular meeting at Sacred Heart Auditorium, Friday evening August 28th at 7:30 o'clock. All members requested to be present. Advertisement. 28

MISS SCHROEDER BECOMES BRIDE

Pretty Late Summer Wedding at the Sacred Heart Church

One of the prettiest of the late summer weddings was solemnized at 9 o'clock this morning at the Sacred Heart church, when Miss Theresa M. Schroeder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schroeder of 443 Sixth street, and John G. Gray were united. Rev. Fr. Basil, rector of the church, celebrated nuptial mass. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of the relatives and friends of the young people.

The bride was given away by her father at the altar rail of the church. She was attended by her sister, Miss Kate Schroeder as maid of honor and the groom was attended by Leo P. Schroeder, while Donatus Asselin and John Stefane were ushers.

The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white crepe du chene, trimmed with point lace and she carried a white prayer book. The maid of honor wore fawn colored silk with a flowered marquisette tunic, and she carried a large bouquet of pink and white roses. Mrs. Schroeder, mother of the bride wore gray silk.

Following the ceremony, the wedding party returned to the Schroeder home, where friends were received and a wedding dinner enjoyed. The home was very prettily decorated, a pink and white color scheme having been carried out. Sweet peas were prominent among the decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray will enjoy a honeymoon trip on the lakes and returning will make their home at the Schroeder residence. They will be at home after Sept. 15. Both are well known in this city, the bride being a graduate of the Calumet high school and the groom an employee of the Houghton County Electric Light and Power Company.

Among the out of town guests present at the marriage were Mr. and Mrs. James W. Smith of Iron Mountain; Mr. and Mrs. W. Brown, Mrs. Keuler and daughter Josephine of Hancock.

TESTIMONY IN LANGOUR MURDER CASE STARTS TODAY

JACOB HUTTILA OCCUPIES STAND DURING MORNING SESSION; MAY LAST WEEK.

The Keweenaw county circuit court today was occupied with the case of Fabian Langour, charged with the murder of James O'Brien at Copper Harbor last spring. Jacob Huttilla, the first witness for the prosecution, took the stand at the opening of the session and his testimony was not concluded until 2 o'clock this afternoon. Because of the number of witnesses who have been subpoenaed, it is likely that the introduction of testimony will not be concluded until next week.

The regular panel was exhausted yesterday and a special venire was required to complete the jury. The man with whom Langour's fate rests are Joseph Schuler, William Vincent, Henry Petermann, James Pooley, Sr., Jonas Baumert, John Meiers, Wesley Clark, Albert Williams, John Pascoe, Chris Senglaub, George Wilson and Henry Garipae.

LITTLE GIRL PASSES.

Dorothy Grace Harry, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Harry of 241 Third street, Centennial Heights, passed away at 3:30 o'clock this morning after a brief illness. Funeral services will be held from the residence on Saturday afternoon, Rev. J. J. Strike of the Centennial M. E. church officiating.
